

Amphenol socket

The Amphenol socket is used as connection socket for ZB telephones in a dry environment in indoor rooms.

The connection cord with Amphenol plug is supplied separately or with the relevant telephone instrument.

Possible application areas:

- railways
- mountain railways / funicular railways / ski-lifts
- industry
- military engineering
- rescue
- security

Part no.:

32291

Applications:

- in dry environment
- in indoor rooms

Features:

- plug-screw connection
- secure against cross poling

Technical data:

material
device box weight colour

thermoplastic
6 - pole contact output
40 g
pearl white / RAL 1013