

Telephone cabinet (for damp rooms) for OB and ZB telephones

The telephone cabinet is conceived for damp rooms and underground plant. It protects the OB / ZB telephone against damp and damages in rough environment. A dewing protection can be supplied as option.

Possible areas of application:

- railways
- mountain railways / funicular railways / ski-lifts
- industry
- military engineering
- rescue
- security

Features:

- protection against damp
- dewing protection (optional)
- with integral connection socket

Technical data:

- material:

- housing and door:
made from glass fibre reinforced unsaturated polyester GFK
- alternative: door with sight window
made from acrylic glass, impact resistant 3.0 mm, with circulating rubber profile

- weight:

- housing without sight window 7.9 kg
- housing with sight window 8.0 kg

- colour:

RAL 7032

- type of protection:

- housing without sight window IP 66
- housing with sight window IP 56

- delivery extent:

- with wall bracket and dewing protection, mounted
(dewing protection with mains connection 230 Volt, other version possible)

Part no.:

- 61101: cabinet without sight window
- 61102: cabinet with sight window
- 61103: cabinet without sight window with dewing protection
- 61104: cabinet with sight window with dewing protection

Application:

- in damp rooms (tunnel, underground plant) or outdoors